
The encryption key is also checked to be on the curve, in the prime-order subgroup, and not the identity; j ranges over the 16 fields.